Bring the Summer Vibes with Strawberry Lemonade by Sherri & Chelsi

by Linzee McCray @seamswrite

If you love to sew but can't quite get your daughter to share your passion, take heart. For years, Sherri McConnell's devotion to quilting was met with polite indifference by her daughter Chelsi Stratton. Even after they talked about designing fabric together, Chelsi's enthusiasm for sewing was minimal. But once Chelsi's drawings were translated into fabric, it didn't take long for that to change. "It turns out there was really no way to design fabric without falling in love with it," she says. "It sparked so much creativity and designing quilts adds even more."

This fervor for fabric and the creativity it inspires is evident in the 18 collections they've produced for Moda, and they're as enthusiastic about their Strawberry Lemonade line as they were about their first, Bright Sun, in 2015. "It's so cheerful and gives off that summer vibe," says Chelsi. "The colors are quirky and I love that. We're at a point where we're stretching ourselves, building off our typical colors."

Chelsi Stratton & Sherri McConnell

Designing Women

Designing fabric is a shared process and the two text, call, and visit back and forth, mulling over inspiration, imagery, and potential color palettes. The majority of the illustrations come from Chelsi's hand-drawn sketches, and she'll work up six or seven ideas to share with her mom. Once they're leaning in a particular direction she puts the images into Illustrator, where she colors them and creates geometric motifs. "I enjoy drawing so much, and have never found it to be a chore," says Chelsi.

With each new line they independently design patterns— Chelsi under the name Chelsi Stratton Designs and Sherri's under A Quilting Life, which is also the name of her longstanding and beloved blog. Vintage blocks, family quilts, and a desire to rethink construction of traditional blocks all provide inspiration for Sherri's quilts, while Chelsi's patterns often result from "playing around" with a block digitally. They're both looking forward to sharing their new patterns—five apiece—almost as much as the fabric.

“When I get the sample yardage I like to make something small as quickly as I can, so I can tell how the colors will go together in my quilts,” says Sherri. “Depending on how they look I may shuffle the fabrics in my quilt designs.”

“You can count on mom to have a pillow, placemat, or table runner made within five minutes of the fabric showing up at the door,” Chelsi says with a laugh. “And you can also count on her to say ‘This collection is my favorite!’ each and every time!”

It's a Family Affair

The family's quilting connections extend beyond the mother-daughter duo to Sherri's son and Chelsi's brother Billy, a former schoolteacher. He'd helped Sherri with her occasional A Quilting Life segments on YouTube and suggested they make more. The very next day, thanks to the pandemic, his school shut down and they began filming segments from Sherri's home. Soon thereafter he proposed a podcast that included Sherri, and the A Quilting Life podcast has since aired nearly 90 episodes. The threesome discusses everything from sewing room organization to retreats to technology in quilting.

Messages and questions from listeners often provide inspiration for show topics, but it's the comments about the show's effect that are most meaningful. “We've heard from people all over the world, some in places that were locked down even more than we were, about how they started sewing again or that the podcast got them through the pandemic,” says Sherri.

“I never saw this happening,” says Chelsi. “I wouldn't have wanted to do this without my mom, but the fun and awesome family dynamic extends to my brother and husband and three children, too. Great family support is a huge part of our story.”

They also credit Moda with helping them grow as designers. “I felt so strongly about working with Moda when we first started out,” says Sherri. “They give us creative freedom and allow us to flourish. We appreciate that so much.”

For more with Sherri & Chelsi visit their websites chelsistratton.wordpress.com & aquiltinglife.com and follow them on social media @aquiltinglife and @chelsistratton Listen to their podcast on Youtube at youtube.com/AQuiltingLife.

Strawberry Lemonade

by Sherri & Chelsi

“...when life gives you lemons, make lemonade...”

A warming breeze, blue skies, and vibrant florals show summer is about to blossom. Strawberry Lemonade presents a slice of warm summer days sitting on the back porch with the perfect companions: a glass of freshly squeezed lemonade, and vibrant new blooms. This bright and cheery collection reminds us of that season filled with fond memories of swimming at the local pool, backyard gatherings with family and friends, laughter and song, and picnics at the park.

Strawberry Lemonade offers a lush pallet with soothing shades of orange, pink, green, aqua, and teal that echo the vivid hues of a garden during the early summer months. We hope you enjoy sewing with this collection, and don't forget to grab a glass of Strawberry Lemonade too!

Inspired by a trailblazer in the culinary world, this collection is a reflection of Julia Child's larger-than-life personality and passion for French cuisine. Her ability to bring joy to the kitchen and the table through her love of food has left a lasting impression on generations of cooks and food lovers.

My hope is that this colorful collection will bring joy to your sewing room as you sew projects for family and friends. Make a new apron, gift hot pads to your friends, update your table with a topper or make a cozy quilt! Julia is sure to make you smile with bright florals, pops of fruit, tea cups and cute little birdies.

Old Glory

Lella Boutique

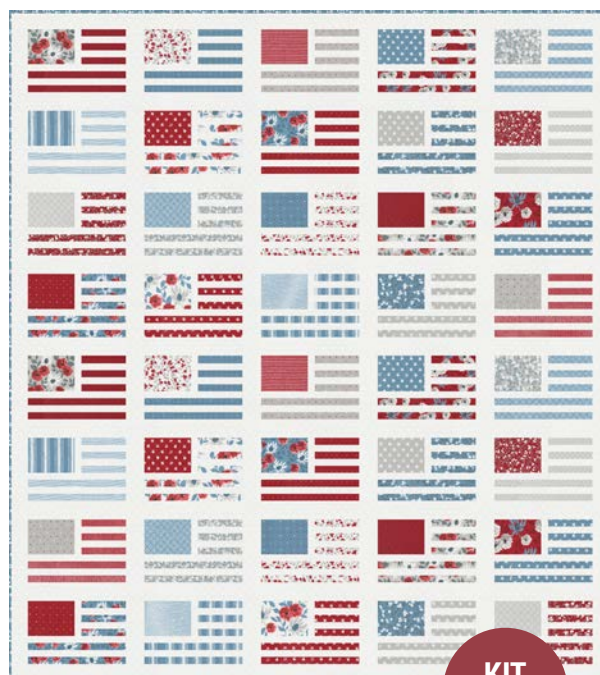

★ let
ring ★

A tutorial to make this adorable wall hanging flag will be shared on Vanessa's blog, blog.lellaboutique.com when the fabric ships.

Hang up the flags and break out the bunting - it's birthday time for the USA!

This is a party that can last all summer - so get ready to bedeck your home with stars, stripes, and florals galore. For those who love Americana, you'll love this twist on the classic color scheme: red, white, and blue - with a bit of silver to make those colors pop! Add a little sparkle to your stash with a few new quilts... Hang them on the walls, put them on the beds, and bring them along for all the picnics, parades, and firework snuggles. Three cheers for the Old Glory collection - an ode to the sweet land of liberty.

The Antoinette Collection has all the small florals and botanical prints that I imagine were used to decorate Marie Antoinette's bedrooms at Petit Trianon, her private estate located just a stones throw from Chateau de Versailles. Filled with soft shades of blue, grey, pearl and faded red, this palette makes up a very pretty, soft collection that feels modern with historical inspiration.

Chelsea Garden Lawns

by moda

Cotton lawn fabric is a lightweight woven fabric with a soft and silky hand. It is created using smaller yarns and a higher thread count, which gives it a very smooth and untextured feel. Create beautiful, light weight garments with lawns, or for ultimate luxury, back your next quilt in one of the lawn prints and enjoy getting cozy under the softest quilt you've ever made.

Chickadee Landing

Kansas Troubles Quilters

After a long, cold Kansas winter, I'm always excited for the first signs of spring. I wait anxiously for the tulips to poke through the last snow, listen for the chickadee's song, and savor the warm breeze as the world turns green again. It's a time for renewal and fresh starts. A vegetable garden sketched on a scrap of paper and a trip to the nursery. Blowing bubbles and discovering dandelions with the newest little family member.

My Chickadee Landing collection evokes those memories with a sweet little blooming vine print and coordinating florals and geometrics in colors as fresh as springtime.

VINTAGE

Sweetwater

Fourteen years! It's been fourteen years and over fifty collections since we debuted our first fabric designs with Moda. That's a lot of fabric! We decided to celebrate by choosing some of our favorites from the past and combining them in a new collection. We had a little help from our followers as we posted some past designs and held a vote on favorites. We couldn't include everything, but Vintage definitely represents some of our most favorite designs from the past fourteen years. The colors are also classic Sweetwater. We couldn't be more excited about this collection!

starry sky

BY APRIL ROSENTHAL OF
prairie grass patterns

One of our favorite pastimes is laying outside with cozy quilts and looking up at the vast Starry Sky. There's something magnificent about feeling so small and observing the grandeur of the universe above us. We look for the pictures of the constellations, find planets, and when we're lucky, catch our breath after a shooting star splits the night sky.

Starry Sky is my celebration of the beauty of these moments, and I can't wait to make our own starry quilts from these beautiful fabrics! I hope you will be inspired by these colors and prints to enjoy your own bit of nighttime magic. Happy stargazing!

xoxo, April

NOAH'S ARK

STACY IEST HSU

And of every living thing of all flesh you shall bring two of every sort into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female.

Genesis 6:19

Rainbows, sunshine and animals of every kind inspired our latest collection, Noah's Ark. Perfect for any nursery or child's room, this collection celebrates the religious story of Noah and his ark with whimsical animal and novelty prints in a modern colorway. To really celebrate this collection's theme, there are two panels, an ark with Noah, wife and animals and a modern interactive book with fun animal artwork. Noah's Ark is sure to win the hearts of your little ones.
